World Book Week – PLEASE NOTE NEW DATES

Dear Families and Carers,

World Book Day is approaching and we have some exciting events that we would like to share with you to celebrate it.

We will be extending our World Book Day to incorporate the whole week, so we will be revelling in the delights of reading from Monday 2nd March – Friday 6th March.

As usual we will be inviting the children to dress up as a book character on Thursday the 5th March. Extra house points will be awarded to those children who can find a copy of the book their character is from.

During the week, there will be a competition to design and create a shoebox diorama of a book, like the ones in the images below of Diary of a Wimpy Kid, Charlotte's Web and Harry Potter. There will be a prize for each Year group and the chance for the masterpieces to be displayed on the wall of the school library.

We would like the finished dioramas to be handed in from Monday 2nd March, with the closing date of the competition being Wednesday 4th March. We can't wait to see what books you choose to celebrate, and the designs you create.

All children will be issued with a £1 World Book Day voucher. Please retain these vouchers to spend at our Book Fair which takes place the week beginning 23rd March – more details to follow.

Kind regards,

Ms Wallis and Mrs Lockwood
