

VE Day – 8th May 2020

VE Day stands for Victory in Europe and marks the end of the Second World War. This year, on Friday 8th May 2020, VE Day will commemorate its 75th anniversary. Before COVID-19, people planned to have lots of street parties to recognise the contribution of ‘the golden generation’ – those people involved in the War. There were lots of street parties in 1945 because people were so happy and relieved that 6 years of being at War were over. Now, instead, the Queen will broadcast a speech, 75 years after her father, King George V1 broadcast his, and people will be putting bunting in their windows.

Bunting Project

We are launching a design your own bunting project. Be as creative as you like! To take part simply email a photograph of the bunting you have made to us. We will feature some of your work on the home learning page of our website to add to the examples of wonderful work you have already done.
